This order is an offer by American Industrial Plastics, LLC ("AIP") to the parties to whom the order is addressed ("Seller") to purchase the goods and/or services ("Products") designated on the face of this order or attached writing and shall be the complete and exclusive agreement between AIP and Seller for such Products. The sole manner of acceptance shall be by performance. These Standard Terms and Conditions of Purchase (the "Terms and Conditions") supersede all prior representations, quotations, proposals, orders, agreements or understandings with the exception of fully executed supply or pricing agreements. By accepting AIP's purchase order, Seller has agreed to these Terms and Conditions in their entirety (the "Contract"). Confirmation orders, invoices or similar documents submitted by Seller that modify, add to, or are inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions shall not constitute a counter-offer and are deemed to be material alterations of AIP's purchase order and are expressly rejected and of no force or effect. In no event will AIP be deemed to have in any way changed, enlarged or modified its liabilities or obligations as fixed by these Terms and Conditions except by a written amendment executed by an officer of AIP. No purchase order is valid unless:

- (i) It is placed on AIP's official purchase order form, and
- (ii) AIP has not withdrawn the order.

2. PRICES.

All prices are in U.S. dollars unless otherwise noted. Payment may be made within forty five (45) days after receipt by AIP of the ordered and conforming Products. All taxes and other governmental charges upon the production, manufacture, distribution, sale or use of the Products, to the extent required or not forbidden by law to be paid by Seller, shall be paid by Seller.

3. VOLUME PROJECTIONS AND QUANTITY.

Seller acknowledges that any estimates, forecasts or projections of future anticipated volume or quantity requirements for Products provided by AIP are provided for information purposes only and may change over time. If quantities and delivery schedules are not specified in the Contract, they will be as reasonably determined by AIP and stated in AIP's firm releases issued to Seller from time to time. If Seller is supplying AIP under a vendor managed inventory system pursuant to this Contract, Seller shall maintain AIP's supply at required levels as indicated through the vendor managed inventory system at all times during the terms of this Contract.

4. SHIPPING.

Seller shall use the carrier designated by AIP. Seller shall comply with all applicable regulations or other legal requirements concerning the manufacture, packaging, packing and delivery of the Products. Any additional shipping expenses as a result of Seller's backorders or shipments of a lesser quantity than specified shall be paid by Seller unless AIP authorizes such shipping expenses in writing. The Products shall be properly packed and secured in such a manner as to reach their destination in good condition under normal conditions of transport. Shipping documents, including Seller's invoice, must accompany each shipment and be transmitted to the freight forwarder in a timely manner. Seller shall bear all risk of loss until Products are delivered to AIP (including off-loading and stacking) and accepted. AIP shall not be obligated to return to Seller any packaging or packaging materials for the Products, whether or not any Products are accepted by AIP.

5. TIME.

Seller shall deliver the Products at the time specified in the Contract which shall be during normal business hours. AIP, without penalty or liability to Seller, shall have the right to reschedule or postpone any delivery of Products. Time shall be of the essence of the Contract. Seller understands and acknowledges that late or nonconforming delivery will obligate Seller to pay direct, incidental and consequential damages to AIP. If for any reason AIP is unable to accept delivery of the Products at the time when they are due for delivery Seller shall, if its storage facilities permit, store the Products in a secure manner until AIP is ready to accept delivery and AIP shall pay Seller's reasonable charges for storage.

6. CANCELLATION.

AIP may cancel any purchase order upon written notice to Seller. In the event of such cancellation, AIP is responsible to Seller only for the cost of any finished goods or work in process that corresponds to AIP's purchase order.

Seller shall indemnify AIP and hold it harmless against all claims or losses resulting from any personal injury or property damage claim resulting from any work performed by Seller's employees, agents or subcontractors at AIP's premises.

Seller shall repair any defects during the applicable warranty period at Seller's cost and expense (including, without limitation, all parts, labor and transportation costs) immediately after being notified of any such defect by AIP. The warranties and remedies contained herein supplement the warranties and remedies provided by the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law which shall not be disclaimed or limited. All warranties contained in this Contract shall run, and all remedies shall be available to, AIP, its Affiliates (as defined below) and/or customers, and all such warranties shall survive any delivery, inspection, acceptance or payment by AIP.

If this right is exercised, Seller shall provide or shall procure the provision of all such facilities as may reasonably be required for such inspections and tests. AIP shall have five (5) years from receipt of Products from Seller to bring any claim for defective or non-conforming goods.

10. REJECTION.

(i) AIP may reject or revoke acceptance of the Products if Seller fails to comply with its obligations. AIP reserves the right to inspect, reject and/or revoke regardless of any prior payment for the Products or the placement of the Products into use for all defects that were not actually discovered by AIP prior to payment or use.

(ii) AIP at its sole option may return the rejected or non-conforming Products to Seller at Seller's risk and expense. In such case, Seller shall within a reasonable time replace such rejected Products with conforming Products. AIP may alternatively require Seller to remove, repair and/or replace the defective Products or parts thereof on site without cost to AIP.

(iii) Seller shall return to AIP any amounts paid to Seller for rejected or non-conforming Products that have been returned to Seller but not replaced.

(iv) Where AIP agrees to accept delivery of the Products by installment, the Contract will be construed as a single contract. Nevertheless failure by Seller to deliver any one installment shall be a material breach of the whole Contract.

(v) The above provisions are in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedies that AIP may have under applicable law.

11. CARE AND RETURN OF PATTERNS, DIES, ETC.

(i) All patterns, dies, molds, or any other tooling and any materials supplied by AIP or prepared or obtained by Seller for and at the sole cost of AIP, shall be and remain the property of AIP.

Seller shall comply with all environmental laws and regulations that apply to the Products supplied by Seller to AIP. Seller agrees to provide AIP with Material Safety Data Sheets and Certificate of Analysis when applicable.

Seller shall give AIP prior written notice of: (a) any delivery of the Products or items accompanying the Products having toxic or other hazards to the safety or health of persons or property and shall provide full details of such hazards and of all precautions which should be taken by AIP in respect of the delivery, storage, handling, installation and use of the Products or items and provide AIP with all information relating to the properties of the Products or items to enable AIP to comply with all relevant legislation relating to the Products or items and/or such hazards; and (b) any delivery of Products which are perishable or of limited lifespan and of any circumstances which may adversely affect the lifespan of such Products.

13. INFRINGEMENT OF PATENT, TRADEMARK AND OTHER RIGHTS.

In the absence of a NDA, Seller may have access to AIP's confidential information including, without limitation, inventions, developments, know how, specifications, business plans, results of testing, systems, financial information, product information, method of operation, customer information, supplier information and compilations of data ("Confidential Information"). Seller shall use AIP's Confidential Information only for the purpose contemplated under this Contract and shall not disclose it to third parties or otherwise use it to its own advantage or AIP's detriment. known to Seller prior to its receipt from AIP as evidenced in writing; or (c) is developed by Seller independently of and without reference to its access to Confidential Information. Seller is permitted to disclose AIP's Confidential Information to its employees and authorized subcontractors on a need to know basis only; provided that such employees or authorized subcontractors have written confidentiality obligations to Seller no less stringent than the confidentiality obligations under this section. Seller shall return AIP's Confidential Information and shall not use AIP's Confidential Information for its own or any third party's benefit. Seller's confidentiality obligations shall survive termination of the Contract for so long as AIP's Confidential Information remains confidential. AIP shall be entitled to injunctive relief including, but not limited to, preliminary, temporary or permanent injunctions from any court of competent jurisdiction as may be necessary to enjoin any violation of this section without the necessity of proving immediate irreparable harm or any inadequate remedy at law.

Except as authorized in Section 1, neither the Contract nor any of its provisions may be modified, amended or waived, whether orally, through the parties' course of performance, course of dealing or course of conduct, or manifested in any other way, unless in writing and signed by authorized representatives of both parties. It is the express intention of the parties that such requirement for written modifications, amendments or waivers be strictly enforced notwithstanding judicial precedent or statutory provisions to the contrary. Any provision found invalid or unenforceable will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision and the invalid provision may be judicially modified to the extent enforceable. The failure of AIP to insist in any one or more instances, upon the performance of the Contract or the failure of AIP to exercise any of its rights hereunder shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any such terms, conditions or rights and shall not effect AIP's right to insist on strict performance and compliance with regard to any future performance of the Contract.
